● Terms

Please read each term. Where there is an initials box, add your initials to confirm you have read it.

1 Booking and retainer. Your date is reserved only when we have both this signed agreement and the 30% retainer. The retainer is non-refundable if you cancel, because we turn away other work to hold your date, except where the law requires otherwise or as set out in clause 6.

INITIALS

2 Balance. The balance is due on or before the session date unless we agree otherwise in writing. Final images are released once the balance is paid in full. All prices are in Canadian dollars. Quotes are valid for 30 days.

3 Extra time. Coverage beyond the hours booked is added only if you ask for it and we are available, at the extra time rate shown on page 1. It is payable with the balance.

4 If you cancel. You may cancel at any time by written notice (email is fine). The retainer is kept; anything you paid above the retainer is refunded. If you cancel within 7 days of the session, the full fee may remain payable, as the date can rarely be rebooked at short notice.

INITIALS

5 Rescheduling. You may reschedule once with reasonable notice, subject to availability, and your retainer carries over. Further changes may carry a small administration fee. Outdoor sessions moved because of unsafe weather are always rescheduled free of charge.

6 If we cancel. If Aura Films must cancel and we cannot agree an alternative date or, with your agreement, a suitable replacement photographer, you receive a full refund of everything you paid, including the retainer.

7 Late arrival and no-show. Time missed through late arrival is not refunded or added on. A no-show without notice is treated as a cancellation under clause 4.

8 The finished work. We deliver hand-graded, high-resolution images in our editing style within the delivery window above. We choose which frames to deliver using our professional judgement; the number stated is what you receive. Unedited raw files are not included unless purchased. Every image is a photograph taken by Aura Films: we do not create images with AI. Refunds are not given for differences in personal taste; if a delivered image has a genuine technical fault we will re-edit it or, where reasonably possible, reshoot.

9 Copyright and your licence. Aura Films owns the copyright in all images under the Canadian Copyright Act. Once paid in full, you receive a personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to print and share the images for personal, non-commercial use, with credit to @aura.filmsca where practical. Commercial use, resale, editing or applying filters, or entering images in contests needs our written permission. Architecture and business clients receive the licence stated in their package.

INITIALS

10 Our use of images. We use images in which you or your guests can be identified for our portfolio, website or social media only with the permission given in the separate Model & Image Release (AF-O2). Images of children are never used without a parent or guardian's written consent.

INITIALS

11 On the day. You will provide a safe working environment and tell us about venue rules in advance. We are not responsible for shots missed because of venue restrictions, guests' cameras or phones in the aisle, weather, or timeline changes outside our control. For coverage over 5 hours, a short meal break is appreciated. We may end a session, without refund, if the safety of our team or equipment is at risk.

12 Storage and backups. Your online gallery stays available for at least 12 months after delivery. Please download and back up your images; after that period we may delete them without further notice.

13 Events outside our control. Neither of us is responsible for failing to perform because of events beyond reasonable control, such as serious illness, extreme weather, emergencies or equipment failure. We will make reasonable efforts to reschedule or arrange a suitable substitute; if that is not possible, clause 6 applies.

14 Limit of liability. If we are unable to deliver, in whole or part, our total liability is limited to a refund of the fees you paid for the affected service. We are not liable for indirect or consequential losses. Nothing in this agreement limits liability that cannot be limited by law.

INITIALS

15 Privacy. We handle your personal information under our Privacy Policy and PIPEDA, and use it only to deliver this service.

16 If something goes wrong. Tell us in writing first at itsaurafilms@gmail.com; we reply within 5 business days and will try to resolve it with you directly. If that does not settle things, we are both willing to try mediation in Kingston, Ontario, each paying our own share. Either of us may then go to court. Nothing here removes any right you have under Ontario or Canadian consumer-protection law. Please contact us before raising a chargeback.

17 The whole agreement. This agreement, with our published Terms & Conditions and Refund & Cancellation Policy, is the whole agreement between us. Changes must be in writing (email is fine). It is governed by the laws of Ontario and of Canada. It may be signed electronically and in separate copies, which together form one agreement.
